THE APPEAL FOR 1876. tered on the thirty-sixth year of its ex-istence, and great as has been its popu-somewhat unsettled feeling, but on the whole the tone pretty strong and values larity, and brilliant as has been its record in the past, the proprietors enter record in the past, the proprietors enter entire line. Business was not very upon the Centennial year with a de- large, and it is still a difficult matter to termination to make it a great repre- draw in a fresh speculative element, but sentative journal of the southwest. Quite a number of new engagements Notwithstanding the hard times, the cir- of the Memphis cotton exchange were culation of the APPEAL is larger than at any previous period of its long career, and we design enlarging our field of usefulness during the present year by making the paper still more worthy of the liberal patronage it has heretofore receive i. A newspaper during the present year will be more than ever instructive and indispeneable to the public. Momentous questions are to be discussed; it will be a year of sgitation and extraordinary events. We will have elections, local and national, for State legislatures and governors, for a new congress, and a new President. Important events will be of daily occurrence. Stirring Issues are shaping for the political contest. State and national. The APPEAL will be found abreast of all progress, fully up to the times. With no offense to Conservatives, Literal Republicans, or any faction opposed to the corruptions of Grantism and Radicalism, the APPEAL will from day to day steamers north, 757; steamers south, preach the gospel of Democratic truth, and insist on a clean Democratic organthe public to understand that every man must decide which cause he will serve and the current indicates most plainly that there will be but two parties in fu ture elections-the one Democratic, the other Republican. There is no alterna tive but to choose between them. Th APPEAL, true to its normal posit on an the canonized traditions of the party re-enlists under the Democratic banner The Damocratic party is a national par ty, and it should have but one and th same name throughout the Union There is no coherence or nationality in a party that assumes different names in different localities. In the northern bales. Price of middling, 12 11-16c; middling, 13 5-16c; sales, 828 bales. Price of middling same time bales. States the enemies to the corruptions of Radicalism, call themselves Democrats; 2:10, duil; 3:05, duil. in Virginia, Conservatives; in Tennessee, Democra's and Conservatives; in other States, Democrats and Liberal-Republicans. When a party thus a sumes different names, it becomes a jarring faction, made up of odds and ends, without homogeneity or nationality. Entertaining these views, we shall discard all appendages to the name of Democra: and ally ourselves with the National Democracy. Already its banner floats triumphantly in the breeze. National Democrats demand an immediate cessation of the brutal military tyranny over the south; that the iron heel of the des- | which 1700 were American. Price of pot be litted from the necks of a prostrate people, upon whom it trampled in American. Market quiet and unthe wantonness of power and in the changed. THE PRODUCE EXCHANGE WAS quiet editorial discussions of all current topic . yesterday; there was no up river boat In a word, the APPEAL will be a firstarrivals, and the offerings were restrictclass, live newspaper, complete in every ed, with no improvent in the demand. Corn, although there was no arrival by river, appeared to be heavier than on the previous day; 281 sacks of white sold at 48c, and 53 sacks at 48c, a couple of lots held the day before at 49c; white corn received no better offer than 48c. Oats were still "on the chronic quiet;"
54 sacks of mixed sold at a price the "trat sactionists" had not a word to say about, which is not complimentary to the market value of oats. Bran was in only moderate offering, a car-lcal sold at $17. Hay is little saked for, except choice, which is scarce; 35, 40 and 50 bales common were sold by the dealers press, with whom we exchange, to in at $14 Corameal had yet another decline, and sales were at $2 25, but notwithstanding the reduction, there was no activity in the sale. Eggs were thought by some dealers to be in better demand; 14@15c was the prevalent price, but there were lots sold as low as

The following we quote from the Chicago Tribune of Wednesday: 'Hog products were in moderate demand, on the speculative article, and prices were firm, in sympathy with strength in hogs, which were in light supply. The prospect for activity in packing is not very good yet, as the hoge hang back and there are no advices of large numbers heading this way. Hence the short interest in product was in want of stuff, and holders not anxious to sell, but the demand for shipment was very light all round, buyers holding off. It is now stated, by Arkanses five per cent. State the corn in cribs in the country. From the statement printed below, it seems that the last "pass" between the Illinois and Idlewild was not fairly stated. We will renew our bet of one boat against the other thit the fastest ore can best the other.

The Other Side of the Picture. STEAMER IDLEWILD, January 7, 1876. RIVER EDITOR APPEAL - An an wer to the following telegram, printed in your issue of the sixth, will be found

"HELTNA, ARK., Janua: y 5, 1876. "RIVER EDITOR APPEAL -- The Idlewild is dead; Illinois passed her in two minutes, at Cow Island. 'Take her JOE SPEARS, clerk." home.'

Japtain George W. Cheek : "Passed the Idlewild at Cow Dland, in two minutes. JOE SPEARS, clerk."

The Idlewild's Statement. STEAMER IDLEWILD, January 4, 1876. This is to certify that we, the undersigned, witnessed the race, if it could be so called, between the Illinois and Idlewild. The Illinois passed the Idlewild while she was lying at Hampton Place discharging freight and people. After the Idlewiid had her freight discharged, she started a considerable distance bebind the Illinois. The Idlewild rapidly gained on her. While nearing Cow Island the Illinois stopped her wheels. The Idlewild did the same. Fnding the Illinois would not go on, Captain Lee instructed his pilots to go and land at Collius's, where she had business. The Idlewild blew her whistle to land at Collins's, and two whistles for the right of way by the Illinois, which she answered; and up to the time the Idlewild stopped her wheels she was rapidly gaining on the Illinois.
